

Where are dolphins found?

Where do dolphins live?

- Dolphins are found all over the world. Some types live in only a small area. Other types can live in many different places. Bottlenose Dolphins seem to be found almost everywhere!
- Most live in the sea but occasionally travel up rivers for short periods. In India, China and Brazil there are dolphins which have become adapted to living in rivers all the time.